Notes:

- Structure and layout looks great, its set up how I imagined
- Summaries are very succinct but informative
  - Especially love the rotten tomato ratings- highlights the shows success
  - Maybe include a little more about the plot for each season, not just background info

Future Directions:

- I really like the background image in mockup B, I think that would be a great image for the first and second pages
- I like how the central characters are mentioned on the second page, but if any characters appear in a season and are discussed in the summaries, maybe give them a bio on the season page as well
- As stated earlier, maybe a little bit more plot summary
- It might be cool to make the nav bar for each season like some sort of timeline? Like each season can be further on the timeline
